FORTNER BILL IS PASSED TO THE THIRD READING

CHARLESTON MEN IN OPPOSITION

Goes Through Second Reading By A Vote of 59 to 38 On Roll Call

Special Correspondence. Columbia, Jan. 27.—The hottest fight of the present session was precipitated in the house this morning on the passage to third reading of the Fortner bill prohibiting white people from teaching in negro schools or negroes from teaching in white or negroes from teaching in white schools under penalty of a fine not exceeding $500 or imprisonment for not more than 12 months.

The bill was passed to third reading after a battle royal by the Charleston delegation. leston delegation.

The measure was amended without a dissenting vote to make the same penalty appliable to "the i. imacy of the races in houses of ill repute."

Another amendment was passed prohibiting white nurses from working in negro hospitals. A third amendment made the bill inapplicable

PLANS CRYSTALIZE IN THE COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE

EXPEDITE PROGRAM

Consideration of all General Legislation to be Set Aside

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Jan. 27.—Antitrust legislation plans crystalized today in the house committees. Both the in-terstate and foreign commerce and the judiciary committees agreed to expedite consideration of the President's program, and to start hearings immediately, the judiciary on Thurs-day and the interstate commerce Fri-

The interstate commerce committee set aside consideration of all other general legislation until after the anti-trust measures are out of the way. Hearings before this committee on the cold storage of food products and on pure fabrics legislation, which had been set for the first week in February, were indefinitely postponed to clear the way for the administration program.

Chairman Adamson of the inter-state commerce committee, issued a statement concerning the much dis-cussed question of committee jurisdiction over the pending measures.

Statement Issued.
"Under the house rules," the statement said, "all bills which seek to regulate the conditions of interstate and foreign commerce are within the jurisdiction of the interstate and foreign commerce committee. The anti-trust law is primarily a criminal provision, though incidentally and col-laterally some civil remedies are pro-rided by 10. Unior use touse rules tided by 10. CANAL TOLLS NOW DISCUSSED

President Wilson Will Proclaim His Views at Future

(By Associated Press.) Washington, Jan. 27,-Tow to dispose of the Panama lanal tolls question was the subject appermost in discussion about the capital today when the attitude of President Wilson outlined to the senate foreign relations committee last night became public. The president's position was asserted to be that the provision of the canal act granting toll exemption to American coast-wise vessels is in violation of the Hay-Paurcefote treaty, which proclaims that the canal shall be free and open to all nations "on terms of entire equality" and that "charges of traffic should be just and equitable."
